

2451

London: In a world committed to collective security for its future ~~survival~~ survival, the Commonwealth (through its family circle of ~~Nations~~ Nations) must play a leading role.

So Mr Macmillan welcomes Commonwealth Prime Ministers to Downing Street.

From Australia, Mr Menzies (~~as Commonwealth Prime Minister~~) greets a newcomer, Mr Diefenbaker - ^{who brings} bringing a Canadian mandate following his recent election victory.

Voicing the opinion of the ~~first independent African people~~ ^{new nation of Ghana} is Dr. Nkrumah, ~~as Ghana~~.

A representative from the Far East - Mr Nehru - joining his sister in London - Mrs Pandit - the Indian High Commissioner.

So, once again, members of a great family gather - to iron out past differences...while shaping the future policy that can be the hope and the inspiration of all mankind.

? Liberia?
1957