

Mayflower in New York-

America-- With billowing canvas, and gaily-fluttering flags, "Mayflower the Second proudly sails into New York Harbour.

Passing the Statue of Liberty, the graceful newcomer enters a port of call never made by ~~her predecessor~~ the first Mayflower - for the Pilgrims disembarked at Plymouth Rock.

The New World salutes this goodwill gift from the Old -- an honoured visitor for all New York to see during the summer months.

Royal Show-

Norfolk-- Visitors to the Royal Show at Norwich gave the Queen and Prince Philip a great ovation when they toured the ground

Honoured Commonwealth representatives included the celebrated Canadian Mounties- now making personal appearances in Britain. AND AN EXHIBIT FROM KENYA

The parade of cattle displayed fine British breeds, which, in all their variety, still place Britain high in the markets of the world. For the first time since 1939, there was a champion white bull.

The Queen and the Duke (who is this year's President of the Royal Agricultural Society) examined many livestock, before Her Majesty presented the Society's Long-Service Medals to 27 workers employed for 40 or more years on one farm.