

Q
2455

Royal Tour

Yorkshire: Touring Britain's largest army camp, at Catterick, the Queen was greeted by her cousin, the Duke of Kent <sup>who is</sup> a Subaltern in the Royal Scots Greys a tank maintenance instructor.

At Harrogate, Her Majesty <sup>VISITED</sup> toured the Centenary Show of the Yorkshire Agricultural Society. ~~which had a record entry of over one~~

~~thousand exhibitors.~~
Here The Queen met, once again, - the famous Canadian "Mounties" now appearing at shows all ~~over~~ round Britain.

~~Italian disaster~~
Italy: This pile of shattered masonry and rubble was one of Rome's biggest tramway ~~disasters~~ - until the roof caved in, trapping one hundred ~~people~~.
Emergency services were quickly summoned - while passers-by joined in the task of ~~rescuing~~ victims. Three were killed and over fifty injured. ~~It is reported that the iron framework of the shed expanded in the collapse.~~

Aintree - race-course into motor-track

<sup>AINTREE</sup>
Liverpool: The world famous Grand National setting, ~~at Aintree~~, surmounts its biggest obstacle - the seasonal transformation from race-course into a top motor racing circuit.

~~Directing operations~~ Aintree Chief Mrs Topham and her assistants, are on the spot - supervising the change from winning post to ~~the~~ chequered flag...

So Aintree prepares another chapter of sporting history - <sup>the 1957</sup> ~~the British~~ Grand Prix - combining the highest standards of safety with first-class organisation. ~~END.~~

3

Liner aground

Bermuda: ~~the~~ the Newsreel camera films the stricken ~~British~~ British liner "Reina del Pacifico" - aground on ~~the~~ a coral reef four miles north of the island.

~~Despite the efforts of tugs~~
Despite the efforts of tugs, the 17,000 ton luxury cruise liner was trapped for over three days. Many of the passengers continued their

2