

The spiritual leader of Eastern peoples and a fabulous King of the Turf: they were the two worlds of the Aga Khan - who has died in Switzerland. He was 79.

Marking his seventy years as leader ^{of the Ismaili community} he was weighed against platinum, in Karachi ~~with that he devoted to the west~~

In the West, a famous sportsman - he is seen leading in his 1935 Triple Crown winner, "Bahram" - ~~one of his five Derby triumphs.~~ THE FIGURE OF THE AGA KHAN WAS LOVED THROUGH THE YEARS AT EPSOM. A devoted Empire statesman ~~his~~ direct descendant of the prophet Mohamed $\frac{1}{2}$ was a staunch friend of Britain. S

~~selected~~
Lately, through failing health, he lived mostly on the Continent - and with the Begum, entertained many British visitors - including film personalities - attending ~~various~~ film festivals. S
To-day, ~~the ten million Ismaili community mourns its spiritual leader;~~ ^{millions of Ismaili Moslems mourn their} the world remembers a ^{vivid} striking personality. S