

2458

Train Crash-

France-- Shattered wreckage ~~is~~ <sup>all</sup> that remained of the night Riviera to Paris crack express, which was derailed ~~near~~ near Avignon., after being mistakenly deviated to a siding.

The engine crashed on to its side, followed by the sleeping car and the next carriage.

Some of the casualties were returning British holidaymakers in a collision that cost 23 lives ~~the~~

Ballet-

Surrey-- The Royal Ballet ~~School~~ School at White Lodge, Richmond, was honoured by a visit from Princess Margaret, who watched with interest, the training of future ballerinas.

Once designed as a Hunting Lodge for George I, this ancient home of Royalty has been dedicated to cultural pursuits- becoming a school for teenagers in 1955.

Protest March-

London-- The fate of a famous theatre- ~~the~~ St James's- (threatened with demolition) brought the unusual sight of leading lights of the entertainment world ~~making~~

~~making~~ making a protest march to St. Martin-in-the-Fields.

Heading the Rally of famous personalities ~~was~~ <sup>were</sup> Sir Laurence O Olivier and his wife, Vivien Leigh.

By carrying the fight into the House of Lords, Miss Leigh has become a leading lady in a new role.