Big Race Day on the improvised Elgin circuit as Junior Speed Kings assemble for the Soap Box Derby.. In the pits, the mechanics are wielding the oil can. So fast times are expected in this speed event - organised by the 5th Elgin Troop, as part of the Scouts' Jubilee Year celebrations.

The hand of experience, John Lawrence of the famous Ecurie Ecosse racing team, wields the chequered flag - and - away they go....

Daring speed aces from many miles around - racing for fame, if not fortune - in home-made "Vanwall specials" - costing not more than ~~£100~~ seven-pounds-ten to build.

The Final of the Cubs' Race brings a thrilling duel. Each car has a power unit of two C.P.C. (that <sup>means</sup> Cubs Pedalling Capacity).

And here he comes - ~~Mr. [redacted]~~, Ian Wingate of the 1st Forrest (Banff) Troop - the Cub Champion of 1957

Swapping their Jaguars for a Wolf Cub model - John Lawrence and Ninian Sanderson find it tough going - even if they did finish second in this year's Le Mans 24-hour Race.

A reminder that it was Elgin's Gala Week - the Carnival Queen, Miss May Macdonald and her attendants, added to the applause - when Ian Wingate received his Wolf Cub trophy from the Lord Provost - to round off a successful Derby Day!
