

At St. Mary's, Kenton, Middlesex, a wedding ~~that~~ was held on the Bank Holiday for a special reason.

The lovely Bride, Film Star Shirley Eaton wanted a quiet wedding when she married Colin Lenton Rowe - director of a Kenton building firm. But the neighbours turned up in force to congratulate the local girl who became a star. Yet, who is still happy to want a quiet wedding in the little Church round the corner...

Our yachtsmen would be happy just to come down to earth, too..

At the White City, France and Great Britain met in an athletic match - sponsored by the News of the World.

Adding to her long jump victory, champion Thelma Hopkins cleared five feet four inches to win the high jump.

In the Men's Event, P. Stableforth topped six feet three - ~~to~~ ~~another~~ British victory.

Marcel Macquet of France won the javelin...while Geoff Elliott cleared thirteen feet nine inches to win the Pole Vault.

Following his recent Mile races, Derek EBBOTSON's idea of a holiday - break was to win both the Two and Three Mile events.

Legacy of his three mile triumph was a huge blister under his foot: but it didn't stop him from passing Zimny of Poland, to win the Two Mile race in 8 minutes 44 seconds. - ~~the toughest double triumph of the~~ ~~season~~ Then, in racing parlance - he "pulled up lame"...

Oh look - can't somebody take the wind out of their sails...

Finally, let's look in at a holiday thrill show at Tampa, in Florida - where they're trying to show that a modern car can take it.

~~THE DRIVER SEEMS ABLE TO TAKE IT, TOO!~~

Who said that' it's lucky to tough a sweep?

If they can do this now - what will happen in leap year!

~~Oh, well~~ LOOK OUT, THERE!

~~the law of gravity must win in~~ the end...
