~~the winner, Mr. Willison, of [redacted] R.C.C.~~

The big event was the Folkestone-to-London Road Race - which brought star competitors from Belgium, France and Holland. /

With a twenty-mile second stage round the circuit - the riders covered 108 miles - and the overall winner was ~~William~~ van Tongerlo of Belgium - a top continental rider... /

Over to Michigan - where it's "Derby Day" - with three featherweights racing for top honours. /

The runners are Calamity, Galloping ~~Goose~~ and Jughead. And though they're no fliers - ^{ostriches} ~~the ostrich~~ can outstrip most horses... Goose -

The broom, by the way, is to keep them on a straight course - and Jughead won - by a very long neck... /
