

Emphasising the world-wide <sup>span</sup> ~~embrace~~ of the Girl Guide Movement, another ~~camp~~ camp opens at Doe Lake, in Canada. A centenary tribute that brings Guides from East and West in the fulfilment of Lord Baden-Powell's ~~ideal~~ ideal of world friendship.

At the opening ceremony, the flags of forty-one countries fly under the Association banner...

During the camp - traditional customs help to break down national reserve- and the Cuban dance proves a popular subject for a snap-shot souvenir.

Coming from the wide open spaces - the Wyoming Contingent form a western gallery for the Latin dancers from Chile...

And from the British section - a ~~breath~~ breath of the Highlands...

One of four world camps, staged, in the belief that smaller gatherings help better understanding. The camp-fire ceremony proved an impressive spectacle.

Each National contingent contributed a log from its own country to the blaze... Truly - a kindling of world-wide friendship...
