

In Greek mythology - the beauty of Aphrodite came from the sea. And at Morecambe, <sup>from a</sup> Pool of Beauty, <sup>with</sup> the finalists in the "Miss Great Britain" Contest - all hoping to shape up as the modern Venus...

Using Venus as a guide to form - try and pick the winner. Here's Marny Birchall of Blackpool...

Yorkshire, of course, will plump for Delyse Humphreys of Sheffield. Coming ~~down~~ South - attractive ~~competitor~~ <sup>ELIZABETH LEWIS OF BIRMINGHAM</sup> Margaret ~~of~~ ~~Walsall~~...

And for big city charm - what about Barbara Smith of Walthamstow?...

But if you're no good at figures - here's a short list.....

<sup>Eight</sup> ~~Eight~~ to choose from - and only one banker needed. (2)

Did you guess? 20 year-old Leila Williams of Walsall gets the rose-bowl and the one thousand pound prize.

Five Foot seven inches of loveliness - to represent Great Britain in the coming "Miss World" contest...

Floral beauty held at the stage at the 28th Annual Southport Flower Show - which has grown with the years into a major holiday attraction - covering some 13½ acres...

Despite the difficulties <sup>as</sup> of an early drought and the subsequent lack of ~~sunshine... the exhibits (ranging from fragile blooms to the downy~~ ~~homey fruit and veg vegetables)~~ sunshine - the exhibits paid glowing tribute to the <sup>gardener's</sup> ~~craftsmen's~~ skill. Among the sideshows is a fascinating display on the <sup>handling</sup> ~~handling~~ of honey bees...without getting stung. They keep the secret under their hat...

~~Another major attraction of this three-day show are the jumping events~~

<sup>AND</sup> famous riders ~~supply~~ <sup>other</sup> thrills at Britain's <sup>PREMIER</sup> ~~biggest~~ summer flower show..