Mrs Budd's birthday

Middlesex: This grand old lady of 102 - Mrs Mary Budd, <sup>of Potter's Bar</sup> is a staunch film fan. ~~She has been a~~ But to-day, she's the star attraction - receiving a great reception as she arrives for a birthday party - given in her honour.

~~celebrations were held in the~~ <sup>This spirited</sup> ~~centenarian~~ welcomed many other aged folk of the district - and then made short work of the 102 candles on her birthday cake. <sup>"AND, MY BOY, I'M STILL SMOKING."</sup>

Mrs BUDD TELLS OUR CAMERAMAN, "A LITTLE DRINK NOW AND SO HERE'S WISHING YOU HAPPY BIRTHDAY FOR AN AGAIN IS ALRIGHT - WHAT'S MORE, I'M STILL SMOKING."

Malaya

Motorcycling

<sup>Czechoslovakia</sup> Brno; A determined challenge by East European riders on new machines meant shattered lap records in the 500 c.c. event of the Czechoslovak Grand Prix.

~~The~~ The well-tried combination of British riders on Nortons, (among them Kenneth Tostavin and Reg Matthews, who finished second and third), proved too much for their Eastern rivals...

But the winner ~~was~~ <sup>is now</sup> was Gerald Klinger of Austria riding a German ~~BMW~~ - who also set up a new lap record of 87.5 miles per hour.
