

London: A motoring tribute to sixty years of service, as a 1900 New Orleans warms up for a commemorative drive - making the Diamond Interestived in spite of CREAKS THE & CREAKS! Mas mateus cavalcade in Battersea Park illustrated the evolution of the horseless carriage" - from the mil-preserved Herbernet Lechnutar the low-slung, stream-lined power of the modern sports car. procession of Then the historic percent inearly two hundred cars moved off - bound for the R.A.C. Country Club, near Epsom for the prosentation of assummeration plaques ... A reminder that the R.A.C. has "serviced the road" since the pioneer days of motoring At Brands Hatch, Kent - a motorcycle event with a post-war background the Moto Cross Des Nations - provided enabberthrilling spantacle. Six continental teams offered a stern challenge to the supposed British riders - triumphant in four of the past five years. Racing over fifteen inviter laps of the sixteen-mile cross-country

And with Jeff Smith gaining his third successive race-triumph - the British team smapt to victory - the Moto-Cross Champions of Europe.