

G

2472

The international demand for the Bristol "Britannia" - (the world's fastest jet-prop airliner) continues, AND RECENTLY OUR CAMERAS VISITED THE BRISTOL WORKS FROM DRAWING OFFICE TO FINISHED PRODUCT, Trans-World Airlines of America want thirty, with special early delivery. B.O.A.C. has thirty-three on order. Canada, Cuba, Israel and Mexico all want Britannias. The Royal Air Force has ordered thirteen to form its main transport fleet.

Altogether - firm orders for seventy of the 350 miles per hour "Whispering Giants" ^{have} ~~are~~ set the Bristol ^{AND OTHER WORKS} ~~works~~ humming with increasing efficiency...

~~_____~~
~~_____~~
~~_____~~

At Bristol - they have nearly reached the capacity output of twenty-five aircraft a year.- That's one every fortnight - a great achievement when you realise that there are five main versions of this world-beater! ^{IT IS EXPECTED THAT} Soon, the long-range version will operate B.O.A.C's TransAtlantic services, and Britannia will indeed - rule the skyways of the world!