Film Stars at London Airport

London Airport welcomes home a screen goddess - Belinda Lee - ~~the Rank Organisation star~~, who has been filming in Italy - in the title role of "Aphrodite"

Already, the Italian sunshine seems a long way off as chill breezes sweep the airport.

Another Rank Organisation star also receiving a happy ~~welcome home~~ greeting is Jean Carson who has been two years in Hollywood.
British film star Jean Carson. Welcome home again. Jeannie!

Meanwhile, the girls who always take a backseat when beauty arrives at the Airport - the ground receptionists faced a panel of judges, (including film star Jill Ireland), <sup>They were</sup> competing for the title "Miss London Airport"

Representing British European Airways was Mrs June Holt.

Fourteen pretty ~~sixteen~~ girls - and the winner was Angela Brading of Pan-American Airlines...

To complete a lovely trio - Jean Binfield and Violet Nolan were ~~other~~ airline girls who keep their feet firmly on the ground.

Hydroplane

Lytham St. Annes: The roar of the outboards echoed across Fairhaven Lake, <sup>for</sup> the Lancashire Hydroplane Racing Club, ~~staged its~~ annual Fairhaven Championships.

Skimming over the three-quarter mile circuit - the craft with the most sting in its tail proved to be Mosquito the Second - so driver Peter Lee carried off the trophy.
