

478

British Legion Parade

~~Berkshire:~~ <sup>where</sup> At The Royal Military College, Sandhurst, four thousand members of the British Legion (representing the Southern half of Britain from Kent to Cornwall) paid homage anew to the aims and ideals of their organisation.

<sup>Standards</sup>
Beneath their Divisional ~~standards~~ - veterans of two World Wars and the Boer War gathered in brotherhood - renewing their pledges of service.
~~to six and disabled ex-servicemen~~

Jewish Memorial

London: ~~The tragic~~ <sup>grim</sup> memories of pre-war Germany were revived at the Jewish ~~Sanctuary~~ Cemetery, Willesden, with the unveiling of a ~~monument~~ <sup>memorial</sup> to victims of long years of Nazi persecution.

The Hon. Lily Montague unveiled the monument. The plaque once graced a Jewish shrine in Germany; but was removed by Nazi orders.

The Memorial remembers six million of the Jewish Faith who died in horror camps - ~~a grim reminder~~ of a dark chapter in European history...

Wind Tunnel

America: In the building of the modern, complex aircraft - the wind tunnel has become a valued tool of research. The latest development <sup>this</sup> is a vertical tunnel - that tests precision scale models, in wind-streams of up to eighty miles an hour. The modern test-bed for the aircraft of the future.

AMERICA
~~Meanwhile~~, on the Potomac, at Washington, the spray flies as America's biggest and fastest speed boats compete for the President's Cup.

Topping one hundred miles an hour, Hawaii Kai Three and Thirstway Two battle for the lead..

A scorching duel - but there goes Hawaii Kai Three racing ahead...
Victory for speed-ace Jack Regas and a new race record of 105 miles per hour...