We Will Remember Them!

12th November 1957

SOUND.

^{was}
We Will Remember Them! A solemn pledge ~~is~~ honoured anew as the Queen ~~led~~ the Nation's homage on Remembrance Day...to the Glorious Dead of Two World Wars.

At the foot of the National Shrine, in Whitehall, the Duke of Edinburgh (in the uniform of an Admiral of the Fleet) placed his tribute to former comrades-in-arms...

So they kept faith, ~~with their~~ ^{ON THE PREVIOUS EVENING AT THE ALBERT HALL} Ex-servicemen ~~from~~ ^{JOINED} proud Capital, ~~town and lonely hamlet~~ ^{bringing} their Standards - in a Festival of Remembrance.

~~The Queen and Prince Philip~~
The Queen and Prince Philip attended this British Legion occasion - ~~at the Albert Hall~~ - the servicemen's tribute to fallen comrades.
Royal acknowledgment for ~~our~~ "Soldiers of the Queen" - the "Boys of the Old Brigade".

The Royal Marines. ^{THEN}
~~The Act of Re-dedication~~...the lines of Laurence Binyon ^{WERE} recited by Sir Ian Fraser, the Legion President / SOUND.

A cascade of memories....a tribute to those we are pledged to remember -
so long as poppies grow in Flanders Fields

~~The unquenchable spirit of the past lives on - a stirring message of hope in the search for peace.~~
