Nov 26th. '57.

~~MacMillan~~ ^{WITH} welcome from the French Prime Minister- M. Gaillard- Mr MacMillan inspected a Guard of Honour ~~when he arrived~~ in Paris ~~bringing~~ wound-healing missions in Paris.

As a prelude to the serious business of the Conference Table, the ~~xxxxx~~ two Premiers with Mr Selwyn Lloyd, ~~made a happy group for the~~ ^{facced the} cameras.

Reassuring the French Premier of Britain's continuing friendship, Mr MacMillan ~~has~~ done much to heal the breach over the shipment of arms to Tunisia.

Meanwhile in the streets outside the Conference Room, extremist youths staged ~~many~~ demonstrations- reviling both Britain and the United States.

~~... as heed to the sacrifices made in bringing liberation to~~
