Italian explosion

Italy: This is Naples harbour - showtly after a mystery explosion had rocked the city. The 2,300 ton cargo vessel "Anna Maria Levoli" lies shattered at her moorings.

The explosion occurred in the ship's boiler-room shortly before her departure for Sicily. At least ten people were killed - while the ill-fated vessel capsized and sank.

Bush fires

Australia: Fanned by strong winds, bush fires swept through the Blue Mountain country, near Sydney - a raging inferno of fire and smoke...

More than twenty houses were engulfed by the fast-moving wall of fire - despite the heroic efforts of volunteer firemen...

The blaze raged for nearly a week - and though only one life was lost - property damage adds up to a staggering total.

London

London: The arrival of film star Maureen Swanson made a pre-Christmas stir at Cadby Hall. Faced with 160 pounds of Christmas pudding mixture-she first added a sixty year-old Australian golden sovereign.

Siz.

Then went to work - mixing 120,000 Australian currants with the other

Then went to work - mixing 120,000 Australian currants with the other rich ingredients - ready for the oven.

The pudding is the annual gift from Australian fruit growers to Lord Mayor - a goodwill offering for 1,000 aged people in the City.

Algeria

Algeria: With rebel activity continuing in North Africa, France is training her paratroops on-the-spot...to give them valuable experience in the type of warfare...

Here's a typical training-session . A transport plane takes the troops up for their first parachute descent

Here they go their courageons mission. Each delaying the opening of his 'chute until he's well clear of the plane. When the interior

 When trained, they will be used in rounding up rebels in difficult mountain terrain...