

Washington: A pro-Western Arab Leader, ~~is an important guest whose~~

~~presence in Washington is of great importance.~~ King Mohammed of Morocco was warmly welcomed ^{AT THE AIRPORT} by President Eisenhower. ^{IN HIS SPEECH OF WELCOME THE PRESIDENT} ~~He~~ outlined the original act of friendship that linked the two countries. SOUND

~~During his stay in Washington, King Mohammed will~~
~~be accompanied by a large entourage.~~

So the President (although feeling unwell) escorted his guest to Blair House - the Residence reserved for Royal Visitors.

Later, the world learned that the President had suffered a slight stroke. ~~xxxxxxx~~

Happily, reassuring news soon followed when President Eisenhower attended a Thanksgiving Service.
