Cyprus demonstrations

Cyprus flares into the news again, with ugly anti-British demonstrations in Nicosia... The angry crowd was protesting against the continuation of emergency regulations - imposed during the terrorist campaign, two years ago...

That same night, fire broke out in a hangar at the new twelve-million pound R.A.F. base, at Akrotiri... One Canberra bomber was destroyed and four other aircraft damaged. An official spokesman said ~~Sabotage~~ "sabotage is definitely suspected"

Regent Street

London: The balloon is going up. But in Regent Street it spells days of rejoicing rather than alarm...

Ushering in the festive season, sixty-four decorative balloons are suspended in mid-air... The Mayor of Westminster, Sir Charles Norton, switched on the lights that ~~illuminate~~ illuminate the gaily-coloured ceiling of this famous West End shopping centre...
