

~~A PLACE ON THE TERRACE~~

~~A seat on the stands~~ for the F.A. Cup knock-out battle at Reading - where Wisbech (the little Club with famous soccer names) kicked off against the home side.

Reading, a youthful side (playing in hoops) made a speedy start:

Whitehouse scored after twelve minutes

Wisbech, (with three former Cup Final stars) played the better football and equalised through Downie.

But a late goal by Dixon dashed their hopes of a replay.... Reading won two-one

A ring-side seat in Chicago Stadium to watch world champion Joe Brown (in white trunks) take the steam out of an eager challenger, Joey Lopez

~~AND~~ the Lightweight Champion had the pay-off punch.

The challenger is game. He totters back into the fight. Joe Brown stalks in for the kill.

But a second gets there first.. The Referee agrees and stops the fight. Champion Joe Brown retains his title. A technical knock-out in the eleventh round.

Now the Newsreel Camera takes you to Nottingham - where British Feather-Weight Champion, Charlie Hill (in dark trunks) is in real trouble...

Dishing out the punishment is Percy Lewis of Trinidad - in this Reg King Promotion.

The vacant British Empire title is at stake. But the Scottish champion has taken eight long counts - only his greathearted courage has kept him in the fight.

Now <sup>his</sup> unable to defend himself, the towel comes in to save a gallant boxer. But the Referee has <sup>shady</sup> stopped the fight.

In cap and gown, students from Oxford, (his adopted city) cheer Percy Lewis....

And there's an academic chair for <sup>a skilful ring professor -</sup> the new Empire Champion <sup>a skilful</sup>

~~ring professor~~
