This is ex Chicago ~~baseball~~ baseball player Jackie Hayes — driving off with the help of his son in a unique international golf tournament at Brantford, <sup>in</sup> Canada. And if you think your handicap makes things a little tough, you'll stop complaining when you know that everyone of these golfers is blind..... Their driving might be amazing, but its the putting that's really fantastic;— Peter Ball from Detroit -- just overshoots. But here's Hamilton's Harold Mitchell, trying for a short one..... These extraordinary sportsmen depend on aides to line up their shots, but from then on its all feel and instinct - Like Phil ~~Lederhouse~~ Lederhouse from Prince Albert - who just doesn't get there and Joe Lazzarro, who puts for the U.S. - and sinks one..... Oh to be able to chip like this - As straight as a die for a perfect lie..... (depends on being pretty)

And the Champ of Champs, United States' Charlie Boswell, earns his title with a superb 30 foot put.....

Congratulations for the American winners, ~~from their Canadian friends~~ while Charlie ~~collects~~ collects the Cup.

A sensational sporting event from the Blind golfers, who've overcome the Greatest Handicap.....
