ALUTTIANS... JAPS OUT OF KISKA.

Warships of the United States Pacific Fleet engaged in the eviction of the Japanese from the Aleutians. The announcement that all the Islands in the group are now freed from Japanese occupation, ties up with these pictures of the bombardment of Kiska, the last Jap foot-hold in the North Pacific.

Military observers in America rate Kiska's fall as one of Japan's most expensive defeats. From now on the Japanese end of the Axis is due for some rude shocks.
