V.C. FOR A HERO.

In a one-time battle-ground in Tunisia comes General Alexander to decorate Sgt. Kennelly of the Irish Guards with the ribbon of the Victoria Cross.

Kennelly receives the high award for courage and initiative in making two single-handed charges on enemy companies during the assault on the Ben Fiska South of Medjer-el-Bah. In each case he broke up an enemy attack and although wounded, carried on fighting throughout the day.

LEAFLETS FIRED FROM GUNS.

An experiment has been made by the Psychological Warfare Branch, together with the Royal Canadian Artillery, in firing Propaganda Leaflets from 25 pounders. The inside of smoke shells is removed and 400 leaflets are packed into each. From this point on it's up to the gunners to throw some common sense among the enemy civilians.

Here's that explosive mail man again... Causes quite a flutter.

Nice idea if Income Tax demand notes were sent this way.
