

PAGE FROM "FOUR YEARS AGO"

The living Poland, by act of war is here in Britain - A resurgent nation waiting to strike, and avenge that criminal blow which laid waste her land.

Recent maneuvers on the grand scale by Polish units in this country, have been under the direction of Brigadier General STANISLAW MACZEK, one of the heroes of the Battle of Poland. The assembled unit is composed of Officers and men who have seen service from the outset of hostilities four years ago; fought their way through to France, and are now the backbone of the new Polish army re-trained and equipped for the great European Battle of Liberation.

In the ranks of Poland's army are men evacuated from Russia, veterans of Narvik and the African campaign, and many volunteers from the Americas.

Polish Commanders are satisfied that every unit is in perfect battle condition. Long and hard experience has taught them much, and exercises such as we see here, have maintained and brought up to date the standard required for the great battles that are to come.
