NEWSBRIEFS FROM NAPLES.

Co-belligerent Italy takes a hand in ridding the country of ~~Kammarbros~~ Kesselring's killers. Italian civilians and soldiers go sniper hunting with 5th Army men in Naples. All they ask for is a rifle and the chance to put a bullet between the eyes of a German.

Outside the Degea Palace, crowds gather to express delight at the end of the Axis partnership, and to cheer the announcement that Naples has been taken over by the Allies. The balcony scene from an Italian drama.

The hunting out of Nazis by the civilian population goes on; among them a Gestapo agent. A carabinieri, guards the prisoner. One of Hitler's secret police whom I regret to say escaped lynching.
