BERLIN RAIDS.

Berlin is getting a real taste of total war. The terrific weight of the R.A.F. assaults on the Capital of Mariland has set the Hun reeling. How he must regret the ruthless attacks he made on Warsaw, Rotterdam, Belgrade, London, Coventry and the rest. The day - and night - of reckoning is here. Within a period of less than a week the R.A.F. dropped over five thousand tons of high explosives and incendiaries on Berlin. It must have looked as bad as Hamburg at its worst - and this is how that City look at the height of one of the raids which reduced it to a blot on the landscape. The Germans say that such attacks are UNFAIR. Unfair, ye Gods! they don't know the meaning of the word!

With pride we introduce a few of the men who "executed" the latest assaults on Berlin. Men from Britain, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Rhodesia and other parts of the Empire. And who can best act as commentators on the raid? Why, some of the leaders!

A crowd of very gallant gentlemen ... all happy in their work!
