

44-558001

JAP WARSHIPS BOMBED.

Jap ships in Rabaul Harbour, as seen through U.S. Navy camera sights. The enemy's New Britain base attacked by planes from an American Carrier. A Jap Cruiser, under full steam, tries to escape the high explosives sent down by the dive bombers.

The cruiser did not survive the smothering effect of these bombs. It lies fathoms deep now in Davy Jones's Pacific Locker.