BRITISH "ACE" SUBMARINE RETURNS.

Returning to a home port after her daring exploits in the Mediterranean, His Majesty's Submarine "Ultror" receives a great welcome. As their eventful voyage comes to an end, the crew have every right to feel proud, for the deeds of the Ultror have been officially described as "unsurpassed in the annals of the Mediterranean submarine ~~flotilla~~ flotillas."

The ensignia-crowded Jolly Roger tells of 44,000 tons of enemy shipping destroyed. Each symbol means a kill. The Commander, Lieutenant Hunt, has been awarded the D.S.O. in addition to the double D.F.C. 28 ships sunk during 16 patrols is the Ultror's splendid record.
