CHURCHILL AT QUEBEC.

.....

Crowds gather at Quebec station to see the arrival of Mr. Churchill for his conference with President Roosevelt. With him as he stepped from the train were Mrs. Churchill and Mr Mackenzie King, the Canadian Prime Minister. "Holle Winston", called President Roosevelt from his nearby car as Mr. Churchill walked over to greet him. to which came the reply "Holle there, Frank old boy". "Victory is everywhere" Mr. Churchill told the crowd. It is certainly in the smiles of both President and Prime Minister; but there'll be precious few smiles in Germany or Japan at the news of their meeting.
