THREE V.C.'s.

At an Investiture at Buckingham Palace, George Crosses were awarded to:- Civil Defence worker, Anthony Smith, who rescued wounded from beneath burning debris .. and to Mr. Benjamin Gimbert, an engine driver who dealt courageously with flames, when an ammunition train caught fire. Mr. Gimbert's proud and pretty daughters went with him. Victoria Crosses were awarded to:- Major Sidney, Grenadier Guards - on the left - who won his decoration at Anzio; to Company Sergeant-Major Hollis, Green Howards, a "D"-Day V.C., and Brigadier Campbell, Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders, for bravery in North Africa.
