TO-MORROW'S KITCHEN?

Science dictates the kitchen of to-morrow. In due time, dear ladies, you'll turn up your exquisite little noses at the kitchens of to-day. Here you have planned order and efficiency....and it's easy to keep it that way.

No more groping in awkward drawers - you can find whatever you're looking for here, before you can say "Knife." Easy to clean moulded fittings and heat-proof, unbreakable glass, enable you to see through all your cooking problems....

Cupboards, larders - all transparent....My, they must be friendly with the butcher here....Well, there it is ladies, to-morrow's kitchen....where work is simply child's play so they say.
