

WHO'S WHO IN THE CABINET

Introduced by Tom Briberg M.P. for Malden.

At last Labour, is in power in Britain - and here are some members of the new Government. The Prime Minister and Sir Stafford Cripps; Mr. Attlee's pipe is as constant as Mr. Churchill's cigar,

The round smiling face is Aneurin Bevan's. He's got to get those houses built.

In the middle here: Mr. Whiteley, Chief Whip.

Ben Smith, once a taxi-driver, now Food Minister, with Arthur Greenwood.

They are in the garden at 10 Downing Street. You can pick out faces you know - there's Bevin, Foreign Secretary, a strong man in a tough job. The bald head on the right is Hugh Dalton, Chancellor of the Exchequer.

Chief figure in many famous trials is now Lord Chancellor Jowett. Here he is with Cripps.

Ellen Wilkinson - Clutter Ede, Home Secretary, and Alexander, once more First Lord of the Admiralty.

No captions needed here. The Press call them Labour's Big Three.....

At the back Aneurin Bevan, and next to him, the man behind demobilisation - George Isaacs, Minister of Labour.

See that chap behind Attlee and Morrison? Jack Lawson of the War Office...he's just off to Burma to see for himself. Next but one to Lawson is Shinwell; his big job is to take over the coal mines, and get the coal. A strong team. The nation wishes them well in their tremendous task.
