THE PASSING OF LORD LANG

The funeral service for Lord Lang of Lambeth, Archbishop of Canterbury and Primate of All England, was conducted at Westminster Abbey according to ancient ecclesiastical tradition. From the West Door, the coffin leaves for its last journey to Canterbury.

Members of the Archbishop's family accompanied the cortege after a religious service conducted by the Dean of Westminster and attended by the heads of church and state.

Lord Clarendon represented his Majesty the King and among the Congregation were Mr. & Mrs Attlee.

Mourned alike by humble and great, Lord Lang will be remembered as a great churchman.
