KISSMAS

An early buyer gets busy before the strip-trees people grab all the mistletoe. The gap separating us from December 25th is narrowing and he's a spot of unfinished business to attend to.

"Everything comes to him who waits", teacher said;
and what an idea that gave him.

Caught at the cross roads. Must have put in some time at the pictures.

Love - it's wonderful. Makes a fellow leap for joy.

Must be catching. Will she tell mother or will they keep the engagement secret till Christmas?
