CHRISTMAS SPORTS - RODEO

The Wild West rides again in Rhythm Rodeo a 50,000 dollar "horse opera" staged by Canadian Servicemen in England.

Hold your ten-gallon hats on, the Redskins reckon on a big haul - well somebody's got to pay for Christmas drinks at Deadwood Gulch. It was rough while it lasted - but the Sheriff's posse turned up in time!:

From the trackless prairies of Surrey, bucking broncos try to empty saddles in the old corral. It looks easy but some of these mustangs are man killers.

Ma - um - who wouldn't be a cowboy on a night like this.

CHRISTMAS SPORTS - Ice Carnival

London too is back on the ice after a five and a half year break, with the first ice Gala at Wembley's Empire Pool. Highlight was an exhibition by Daphne Walker, up and coming contender for the British Skating title.

Man over the barrels is Harry Reddy.

British & European Skating Champion Cecilia Colledge turns on the old ice-magic.

A couple of uninvited guests slipped in at the interval, carrying a load of something - if you can guess what.
