ATLEE'S SPEECH TO U.N.O. 46-4.

"We who are here gathered today in this ancient home of liberty and order are able to meet together because thousands of brave men and women have suffered and died that we may live. It is for us today, bearing in mind the great sacrifices that have been made to prove ourselves no less courageous in approaching our great task. No less courageous, no less self-sacrifice, we must, we will succeed.
