

QUEEN MARY VISITS BOYS' PARLIAMENT

Making one of her rare public appearances, Queen Mary visits North London's Ryalm Youth Movement. Founded to help young men from the Provinces who come to work in London, the Institute takes pride in the fact that all its activities are run by a Cabinet elected from the members. In honour of this occasion the Ryalm Boys' Parliament met in full session, to hear nineteen year-old Prime Minister Douglas Turner's address of welcome to Queen Mary.
