

GRAND PRIX ON SKIS

The poetry of men on skis, speed and split-second timing in the magnificent setting of the French Alps. Ace skiers from France, Switzerland, Poland and Czechoslovakia pit their skill against each other in the International Grand Prix.

The bird-like grace of the jumps and, for the unlucky, a spill on hard snow. First three places went to France in a competition built of speed and thrills.