

"BOWLER HATTED" HIROHITO

Ruined Yokohama gets a treat. Emperor Hirohito ventures outside his palace - only the third time he's done this since the war. A startling departure from his former godlike austerity - it's all part of Hirohito's new popularity campaign to hold on to his position as Emperor. The Emperor sees more people, and more see him, than ever before in Japan's recorded history. Back in the Special Imperial Train Hirohito faces up to a new world situation.