SHANGHAI STUDENTS DEMONSTRATION

Looking down on the Soviet Consulate in Shanghai where crowds of Chinese students besiege the building in a full scale protest demonstration. Cause of the trouble was Russia's delay in withdrawing her troops who took over Manchuria after Japan's defeat. Young nationalist agitators work up an energetic meeting with speeches banners and slogans. Nevertheless faces don't reflect much political feeling.

Big moment came when the ~~xxx~~ crowd assembled for a mass march through the Shanghai streets. After these meetings, news came that Russian troops were pulling out of Chinese Manchuria. But as soon as they left, Chinese Communist forces moved in and took over the key cities of Mukden and Harbin. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek is reported to be taking action to clear up a dangerous situation and China faces still another troubled time.
