

UNO REPORT BY TRYGVE LIE

Trygve Lie

Our world has come dangerously near a breakdown and there are still difficult days ahead. We must not allow the human race to commit suicide.

I am sure that the United Nations will succeed, and I shall do all that is in my power to make it succeed. But for this we need your support. It is the ordinary people in every land who by their faith and enthusiasm can save the world.