

WEMBLEY SPEEDWAY

To the famous speedway rear, riders oburn up the cinders at Wembley's Empire Stadium. The dirt track kings come back in the season's first National League Match, as Wembley Lions battle out the races with Manchester's Belle Vue riders.

Straight from the line-up Belle Vue's Jim Boyd takes a spill.

Hurting round the track it's a heat taking wrestle, with muscle and brain pitted against crazily swerving bikes. To stand up to the terrific cornering they wear lead-soled boots.

First victory went to the Wembley Lions in the match that brings back the rearing sport.
