

0-215101

NEW HONOUR FOR MONTY

The Freedom of the City, the highest honour London can give, goes to Field Marshal Montgomery. Most impressive of the tributes was this one - to the British soldier.

"And I shall take away with me to the evening of life many impressions, but the one I shall treasure above all others is the picture of the British soldier. Strong and tenacious in defeat - kind and gentle in Victory, the one man to whom the nation owes its heartfelt thanks".

.....