REPORT FROM PALESTINE

In the Great Synagogue at Tel Aviv, stolen uniforms of many British regiments, and bal es of forged bearer bands of the Palestine Government have been discovered, in addition to a portable radio transmitter and quantities of illegal weapons and explosives. All this came to light when a false wall in the synagogue was found. The Jewish Temple Keeper was placed under arrest.

200,000 Jews are being checked by two Divisions of British Troops and Palestine Police - 25,000 people are being interrogated each day. Our troops, in sternly-guarded surroundings, are looking for members of the notorious Irgun Zevai Leumi, and the Stern Gang - suspected of blowing up the King David Hotel in Jerusalem.

People with an obvious reason to rejoice are the Arabs, who express themselves in a dance of jubilation.
