HOME-WOMEN ONLY

This is Pathe's Fashion Reporter Joan Griffiths bringing you a woman's eye-view of the latest things in swim-suits. Shown to buyers and Fashion experts, the ones that don't go for export may be in your shop pretty soon now. And now, star item for the waist-worred - the figure foundations - corsets to most of us. This average figure model is an American style.

For the often-forgotten teen-agers a nylon model with lightweight bandeau bra.

If the style-books list you among the full-figured, here's a hip-holding corselette. Rayon lustre ~~satin~~ satin it's boned and with lastique side-sections. And now, excuse me while I get my coupon-book.

And from Morecambe, Beauty calls. With a slide down the years to a dashing, daring swim suit of 1914. Having their eyes opened were Judges George Fomby and bearded Professor Joad. What would Plato think of him now?

Event is the National Bathing Beauty Contest. Care to pick a winner?

How does your judgment compare with the Fomby-Joad Tribunal? Their choice was June Rivers of Manchester - 24 years old, brown hair, green eyes. And that ends for Women only.

Here's a home note. Meet Mrs. Sybil Franklin of Hove; Sussex foster-mother of nine babies. Pathe's John Parsons introduces her toyen.
