Last word from England's Test Cricketers comes to you from Skipper Wally Hammond.

SPEECH

Next stage brings in the Stirling Castle and the gang plank at Southampton. Seventeen men carrying England's cricket colours in Australia. Coming back, we hope they'll bring those famous Ashes.

Next stop, Australia.

Manchester's Belle Vue. Heavyweight wrestling champ Bert Assirati of London meets challenger George Gregory of Bolton. Gregory is the taller of the two - apart from that, only their mothers could pick out whose limbs belong to who.

So you won't shake hands, huh?

Both well trained, when they hit the deck they bounce. And after all that, can you guess the result? You're right; a friendly draw for Georgie and Bertie.
