SCOTLAND'S GOWAL GATHERING

This is Alastair MacIntyre reporting on the world famous Gowal Gathering. Scotland's champion Highland Dancers meet in a foursome reel. Maureen McMahon of Edinburgh leads; with her are Andy Campbell of Dunbarton, Edinburgh's Elizabeth Baker and Jeannie Montgomery of Loch Gilhead. Attendance records were smashed at Dumess and Gourrock - with Sir Harry Lauder helping to make it a record occasion.

Tossing the caber is G.H. Mitchell of Glasgow Police.

And for the real, blood-stirring lilt of the Highlands, here's the March Past of the thousand pipers.

A great day for Scotland. And whichever side of the border you find 'em, there's no a single Scot that doesn't feel his heart warm to the sound of the pipes.
