PATHE'S OPINION POLL

Prisoners: "Send them Back"

These are German prisoners of war. Their life bounded by a prison cage. There are 385,000 of them in Britain today. Controversy rages around them. Pathe News brings it to the screen. First, the Churches. Making for them is the Vicar of St. James's Norlands.

SOUND

That is a considered opinion. It is based on the view that to keep prisoners indefinitely is to keep slave labour. That, the churches say is to do ourselves the things we fought to destroy in our enemies. We know there are other opinions - no less honestly held. These Germans, now looking apathetic and harmless, were once confirmed Nazis. They carried German arms over Europe and Western Russia. They must take their share of responsibility for German crimes. Pathe cameramen recorded these impressions inside the camps.

You, the people of Britain must decide these men's fate. From a poll of opinions we bring you men and women in the street.

SOUND

Meantime, the Prisoners wait. What have you decided?
