PEOPLE IN CAMERA

The Bishop of London heads a new ceremony on the steps of St. Paul's. To raise $\frac{3}{4}$ of a million pounds Dr. Wand sits all through the day, accepting gifts. Among the givers was the Lord Mayor of London. Object of the money-raising drive is the reconstruction of Church life in the Bishop's diocese.

A worthy cause, it brought gifts from old and young.

And from our reporter in Washington, an introduction to the Archbishop of Canterbury. On a tour of America, Dr. Fisher met President Harry Truman. From the White House, he asked Pathe to send this special message to you.

In Nuremberg, the judges have decided the fate of the 21 former leaders of Hitler's Germany. Here is Frau Doenitz (wife of the Nazi Navy Chief) and her son, first of the visiting relatives. Einar Streicher, son of the Jew baiter was there and also the daughter of Seyss-Inquart, former Gauleiter of Holland. For many, this will be their last visit. Here the camera catches Frau Frick - and among those apparently least affected by the verdicts is Rosenberg's daughter.

Last to arrive is Frau Goering and her daughter. Former actress, Emy Sonnemann this is her last act at Nuremberg.
